

TAMS Counselor Receives Award

Sharon Vann, a counselor at the Texas Academy of Mathematics and Science in Denton, has been selected by Texas A&M University as one of its 2007 Very Important Counselors.

Ms. Vann was among thirty counselors statewide selected for recognition. The award program was established in 2005 to honor high school counselors for outstanding service to the counseling profession, helping students gain access to college, and supporting Texas A&M recruitment.

Sharon Vann and Texas A&M University Interim President Ed Davis

Vann and other recipients were recognized by Texas A&M University Interim President Ed Davis in a special ceremony on campus April 9. The designation carries with it a $1,000 scholarship for each counselor to award to a high school senior planning to attend Texas A&M this fall